A note from Mrs Lennon

We have had a lovely 1st week back after half term—and, despite the rain, it's nice to know that Spring is here...! Thank you all for your patience this week as Mrs Clarke and I have been on gate opening duty! We know our timekeeping isn't quite Caretaker standard—but appreciate your patience as we try our best!

Have a lovely weekend!

Show Racism the Red Card

This morning our Year 5 class had a visit from the "Show Racism the Red Card" team. They enjoyed watching a short performance piece and participating in a workshop about the importance of tolerance, diversity and inclusion. I know Mr Varley was impressed with the contributions our children made and the mature and sensible way in which they engaged with the sessions.

If parents would like to use any of the resources at home, they can be found here:

World Book Day

A reminder that World Book Day is happening next Thursday—children can come to school wearing book character costumes, pjs or comfy clothes that they like to read in! On the day the children will be doing work around books and authors and the week is being kicked off on Monday with a visit from a storyteller in school!

Don't forget...

We are hosting our first family quiz night on Thursday 12th March—more info will follow next week!
